○ Weekly Summary (Short summary about what you did this week)

In this week, our main job was to read the project background paper that our advisor sent to us and make a short presentation, which can help us to understand this scientific paper. Since we received the paper, we had three days to read, research, and understand it. On Thursday, our group had a meeting on to discuss how to prepare this presentation and finished the Powerpoint presentation. Finally, we made appointment with our advisor to show our presentation next week.
